We have invited some of the most prominent Union advocates in Illinois to join us at our year end program and share their perspective on public sector labor relations. Jim Baird, Clark Baird Smith LLP, will moderate the discussion. So far, the following individuals have accepted our invitation to appear and speak to our group:

J. Dale Berry – A long-time General Counsel, negotiator and legislative strategist to the AFFI, and pioneer in Illinois labor law.

Tamara Cummings – Legal Counsel to the Illinois FOP Labor Council since 2003, and currently FOP General Counsel.

Joseph Mazzone – For over 35 years, Joe has served as legal counsel the Metropolitan Alliance of Police. He currently serves as MAP's "Chief Counsel" and negotiator.

Ken Edwards – Holding the title of "Senior Counsel" for the International Union of Operating Engineers, Local 150, Ken has served the Union as an attorney and chief negotiator for over 20 years.

This is a great opportunity to hear the Union perspective on police, fire, and civilian employee labor issues and trends.

About the Moderator

Jim Baird is one of the Founding Partners of Clark Baird Smith, LLP. Jim's law practice is particularly focused on the representation of public and private sector management clients in union representation, collective bargaining, grievance and interest arbitration, workplace counseling and unfair labor practice matters. He has successfully negotiated over 200 collective bargaining agreements on behalf of public, private and federal employers throughout the country.

This training is intended for management personnel who are not represented by a labor union. This includes HR Directors, Managers, and Department Directors.
